Frequently Asked Questions

How much does Davidson College pay?
There are a lot of factors that go into this. Davidson considers Cost of Attendance, Financial Need, and Outside Scholarships.

But really, what about financial aid?
- Davidson College will package the financial aid for study abroad up to the program’s COA or Davidson’s COA, whichever is lower
- Your financial aid does not include Work Study (so you will get financial aid minus the $1125/$2250)

What if I get an outside scholarship?
Outside scholarships replace the Work Study; if over $1125, the scholarship replaces part of your need-based aid

Do I get a bill from Davidson College?
Yes, you will pay tuition to Davidson as in a regular semester. If you receive more financial aid than the cost of tuition, you will receive a refund by direct deposit.

What if my program gives me a bill before financial aid pays?
You can pay it if you like. However, some programs have a deferral form. This form tells the program provider how much financial aid you will receive and when. Typically, Davidson Financial Aid must complete a portion of the form.

What if I can’t afford the deposit or airfare?
Davidson does not give out loans or financial aid advances to cover these costs. (Some merit scholarships do allow for this.) Speak to your program provider. Some will have a way to assist you with these costs or create a payment plan.

What about summer?
You may take out loans for summer if you are enrolled half-time or greater. Contact Linda Patel for more details (lipatel@davidson.edu).

Key Terms

Cost of Attendance (COA)
- Billable Items = Items you pay your program directly (usually tuition, fees, room/board)
- Non-billable Items = Items you will need to pay for to study abroad (usually transportation, food, personal, books)
- Determined by your program provider

Expected Family Contribution
- You will still be expected to pay the same amount for your total program COA as if you were studying on-campus at Davidson College
- Determined by Davidson College

Refund
- You must send an enrollment verification before we release your refund
- You will receive a refund (if you have more aid than the cost of tuition) in a deposit account 7-10 business days after enrollment verification
- You can use this refund to pay your program provider directly and/or your non-billable costs

Enrollment Verification
- This is sent to financial aid office after you arrive in country
- Must have your name, full-time study status, and equivalent US credits
